Former Auditors

Other Items Of Interest From Temple Of Justice

At a meeting of the city council on this place Monday evening, City Examiner Heck made a statement that the city of Mt Vernon is entitled to about $1,200 de pository interest money from Knoxcounty and that not a cent of this mon ey had been paid to the city since the town. law became operatove in the fall of County Auditor Walter M. Riley was nterviewed by the Banner Tuesday morning relative to the matter and was informed that the examiner made an error in his statement to council Auditor Riley stated that at the February, 1914, settlement he turned over to the city the sum of $39.15 as depository interest and turned over to the city board of education the sum of $75.62 as depository interest.

Auditor Riley stated that he is the first auditor to pay over depository interest to the city and the city school poard. As Auditor Riley did not take his office until after the August settle ment, 1913, it will be seen that he is in no way responsible for the failure of the city to obtain their depository interest in the past. As stated above, he is the first county auditor to make a depository interest settlement with the city since the law became operat-

Accordingly, Auditor Riley stated Tuesday morning that he would not that the city claims is due prior to the February, 1914, settlement, unless compelled to do so by the court. He stated that if any action should be brought it should be against former county auditors and their bondsmen and not against the present auditor and his bandsmen, inasmuch as the provisions of the law have been carried out to the letter by the present county audi-
